INTERLOCUTORY ORDER

Upon the findings of fact this day filed herein and which are made a part of this order, the Commission concludes as a matter of law that the Red Lake and Pembina Bands of Chippewas are entitled to an award in the sum of $3,369,726.00, less $609,480.36 paid said Bands on the claim, leaving a balance of $2,760,245.64 payable to the Red Lake Band of Chippewas and the descendants of members of the Pembina Band of Chippewas as it was constituted and recognized by the United States at the time of the Treaty of October 2, 1863; provided, however, that the amount of the award may be amended as is justified by any proof the defendant may offer as to the acreage of lands within the subject area granted, or in lieu thereof scrip issued, to male adult mixed-bloods of the Red Lake and Pembina Bands as provided under Article 8 of the October 2, 1863 Treaty, as modified by Article 7 of the April 12, 1864 Treaty, or that the 1280 acres of land was set aside to the two chiefs of the Bands as provided in Article 9 of the 1863 Treaty.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED by the Commission, that the Red Lake Band of Chippewas and the descendants of members of the Pembina Band of Chippewas as it was constituted and recognized by the United States at the time of the Treaty of October 2, 1863, shall have and recover of and from the defendant the sum of $2,760,245.64, which award may, however, be amended to the extent justified by any proof to be offered by the defendant as to the acreage of lands within the subject area, granted, or in lieu thereof scrip issued, to male adult mixed-bloods of the Red Lake and Pembina Bands as provided by Article 8 of the October 2, 1863 Treaty, as modified by Article 7 of the April 12, 1864 Treaty, or as to the 1280 acres of land that were to be set aside to the two chiefs of the Bands, as provided in Article 9 of the 1863 Treaty; and less offsets, if any, as may be allowable under the Indian Claims Commission Act.
