Day Simmons, are sole heirs at law and distributees of Kenneth R. L. Simmons, and are jointly entitled to any interest the Kenneth R. L. Simmons estate may have in attorney fees realized from the Northern Arapaho Tribe's claim.

The Commission further finds that pursuant to the aforesaid contract of employment, as extended, the attorneys prepared and filed a claim on behalf of the Northern Arapaho Tribe of Indians against the United States. That on June 27, 1963, a final judgment was entered in the above entitled case, adjudging that the petitioner, the Northern Arapaho Tribe of Indians of the Wind River Reservation, Wyoming, should recover the sum of $3,230,000.00.

The Commission further finds that the attorneys for petitioner have earned and are entitled to the full sum allowed by their contract with petitioner, namely, ten percentum (10%) of $3,000,000.00 and eight percentum (8%) of the remaining $230,000.00 of the award, or $318,400.00.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the said firm of attorneys, Wiggenhorn, Hutton, Schiltz & Sheehy of Billings, Montana, and Newton Day Simmons and Sara Simmons Hertz, heirs-at-law of the estate of Kenneth R. L. Simmons, deceased, and distributees of the estate of Hazel Day Simmons, deceased, be, and they are hereby allowed the sum of $318,400.00, which sum shall be in full compensation for legal services rendered the Northern Arapaho Tribe of Indians in the prosecution of its claim against the United States; that said sum shall be paid out of the appropriation which the Congress of the United States has or may hereafter make to satisfy the final judgment made by this Commission on June 27, 1963.

Dated at Washington, D. C, this 27th day of June, 1963.
