FINAL JUDGMENT

Upon the joint motion of the parties in the above-entitled case for entry of final judgment with prejudice to the right of either party to appeal pursuant to the stipulation filed herein on January 7, 1963, which stipulation is hereby incorporated by reference into and made a part of this judgment; and a hearing on said motion having been held on the 11th day of February, 1963, and evidence both oral and written having been offered in support of said motion and considered by the Commission; and findings of fact and an opinion having this day been made and entered herein and which are hereby made a part of this judgment; and it appearing that said compromise settlement of the claims of the Upper and Lower Chehalis Tribes and of the defendant's offsets for the net sum of $754,380.00 is found to be fair and just to the parties, and that the joint motion of the parties for judgment pursuant to their stipulation should be allowed and a final judgment be entered for plaintiffs in the amount of $754,380.00 as a full and complete settlement between the parties as provided in said stipulation,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the joint motion of the parties for final judgment pursuant to their stipulation be, and it is hereby, granted, and final judgment is hereby entered in favor of plaintiffs, for and in behalf of, and for the benefit of the Upper and Lower Chehalis Tribes of Indians, and against the defendant for the sum of $754,380.00.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of October, 1963.
