ORDER ALLOWING ATTORNEYS' REIMBURSABLE EXPENSES

Upon consideration of the petition for allowance of attorney expenses, and the response thereto filed by the defendant on October 26, 1965, and after a hearing before the Commission on November 2, 1965, and

It appearing that the claimed expenses totaling $7,148.85 were incurred by the attorneys representing petitioner in connection with the prosecution of the claim in the matter of the above-entitled case under contracts with Ernest L. Wilkinson, William A. Brown, now deceased, and the law firm of Wilkinson, Cragun & Barker, and

It further appearing that the defendant has no objection to the allowance of attorney expenses as shown by said petition, and further the Commission having taken the matter under consideration and being now advised in the premises, the Commission finds that the attorneys have presented proper evidence establishing that the claimed expenses in the amount of $7,148.85 were reasonable and proper.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that from the award made to the petitioner there shall be paid the sum of $7,148.85 to the law firm of Wilkinson, Cragun & Barker, which sum is in full payment for reimbursable expenses incurred by them in the prosecution of the claim of petitioner.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 3rd day of November, 1965.
