SECOND INTERLOCUTORY ORDER

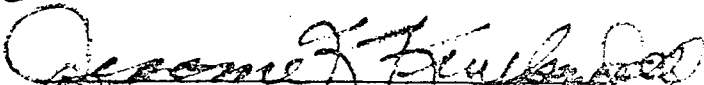

Upon the supplemental findings of fact numbered 27 through 50 this day filed herein and which are hereby made a part of this order, the Commission concludes that the 12,044,934 acres of land located in the State of Michigan, which were ceded to the United States by the ancestors of the petitioners herein under the Treaty of March 28, 1836, had a fair market value of $10,800,000 as of that date.

IT IS THEREFORE ADJUDGED, ORDERED AND DECREED that the 12,044,934 acres of Michigan lands, ceded to the defendant by the ancestors of the petitioners herein, had a fair market value of $10,800,000 as of March 28, 1836; and that the case now proceed to a determination of the consideration received for these lands by the predecessors in interest of the plaintiffs herein, whether or not such consideration was unconscionable under the Indian Claims Commission Act, and such offsets, if any, as may be allowable under the Act.

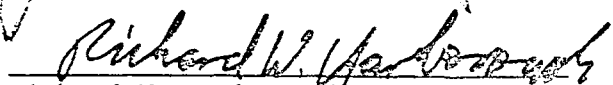

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of December, 1968.
