INTERLOCUTORY ORDER

Upon the additional findings of fact filed herein this day and which are hereby made a part of this order, the Commission concludes as a matter of law:

1. That 1,149.51 acres of plaintiff's fee simple title lands were taken by the United States on June 30, 1904, without the payment of any compensation therefor.

2. That 29.28 acres of plaintiff's fee simple title lands were taken by the United States on March 3, 1905, without the payment of any compensation therefor.

3. That 20.20 acres of plaintiff's fee simple title lands were taken by the United States on December 22, 1924, without the payment of any compensation therefor.

4. That under Section 2(1) of the Indian Claims Commission Act, plaintiff is entitled to recover from defendant just compensation for the taking of all the above lands, the sum aggregating 1,198.99 acres.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the case proceed to a determination of the just compensation due the plaintiff for the taking of these lands, and also as to what offsets, if any, defendant is entitled under the Indian Claims Commission Act.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June, 1969.
