Docket No. 207

FINAL JUDGMENT

On September 11, 1969, the plaintiff herein, and the defendant, filed a joint motion for the approval of a proposed compromise settlement of the claim of the Stillaguamish Tribe of Indians in the above entitled docket based on a "Stipulation For Entry of Final Judgment" filed along with said motion.

The Commission having this day entered its findings of fact, which findings of fact are hereby made a part of this order, concludes as a matter of law that the said proposed compromise settlement of the claim in the above docket is both equitable and just to the plaintiff and the defendant, and there is no reason to postpone further the entry of a final judgment in accordance with the terms of the aforesaid stipulation.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the "Stipulation for Entry of Final Judgment" entered into by the parties herein is hereby approved; the joint motion for the entry of final judgment pursuant to said stipulation is hereby granted; and the plaintiff shall have and recover from the defendant the sum of $48,570.00 subject to the terms and provisions set forth in the "Stipulation For Entry of Final Judgment."

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of January, 1970.
